

A series of 20 horizontal lines for musical notation, arranged in two groups of ten lines each. The first group of ten lines is positioned between the flute illustration on the left and the notes on the right. The second group of ten lines is positioned between the notes on the right and the flute illustration on the bottom right.

